

Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.

The Only Answer

All men who depart from God would seek God. Therefore, religion appears at the instant when Adam departs from God. But Adam, who depended on his own method to solve his problem, sank into greater problems. Why do religions however cause man to immerse into more serious problems? Why is it that only Jesus Christ can solve all problems?

1. Man cannot meet God by depending on himself <Ro 3:9-18>

- 1) To meet God means to once again communicate with God through the restoration of God's Word and the Holy Spirit
- 2) After departing from God, man already become flesh. Therefore, they are unable to know God's Word and the Holy Spirit by depending on themselves
- 3) All thoughts, judgements and works carried out under the authority of sin are considered sins themselves
- 4) Continue to receive incorrect hints under the dominion of Satan

2. The more the effort to resolve, the greater the immersion into more serious problems <Jn 3:1-11; Col 2:8>

- 1) The result of man hungering to resolve and struggle led to ethics, morality, philosophy and religion
- 2) Mankind history proved that the region and era where human's ethics, philosophy and religion prosper, the more serious the problems
- 3) The more advance the thoughts and methods of people who left God's Word, the greater confusion it brought
- 4) The more earnest one live his life in the state of demons deception, the more he will be deceived. The conclusion is only curse and perishing
- 5) In the observance of regulations, successes would only result in men's idolization, arrogance, or judgmental view..., thus committing greater sins. Failures would on the other sink into the bondage of greater guilt, defeated complex or shedding of responsibilities

3. We can only meet God through the only way, Jesus Christ <Jn 14:6>

- 1) Jesus Christ, the Great Priest solves man's problem of sin, curse and death through his affliction and death <Ro 8:1-2>
- 2) Jesus Christ, the Great King breaks Satan's authority of death through His resurrection <1Jn 3:8>
- 3) Jesus Christ, the Great Prophet brought about the restoration of God's Word and Holy Spirit in us <Jn 14:6>
- 4) He is not Adam's descendants, but the word became flesh and came to this world through virgin Mary who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
- 5) Was born through the prophecies, testify the Father and the Kingdom, and died and resurrected through the prophecies
- 6) The content of the Bible and mankind's history all testify the mystery of Christ <Col 2:2-3>

4. We can only be born again if we are willing to died and resurrect with Him <Ro 6:1-11>

- 1) To die with Christ means to "repent in confession of self corruption and powerless"
- 2) And believe that my death with Christ has already solved all problems of sin, curse, death,...

- 3) Believing that my resurrection with Christ has restored all blessings in God
- 4) Born again means that God's Word and the Holy Spirit enter into my heart, and from then on, I receive a new life and spirit
- 5) Upon having more understanding of God's Word and mystery of the Holy Spirit, this born again life will grow to be even more beautiful and powerful

5. Christ is our entire problem solver

- 1) In Christ, we can see God with us anytime, anywhere <Jn 14:9>
 - 2) In Christ, God's Word and the Holy Spirit will lead us forever <Jn 14:16-27>
 - 3) In Christ, our prayers will be answered <Jn 15:7>
 - 4) In Christ, we can triumph over enemies and all forces of darkness <Lk 10:19>
 - 5) In Christ, we possess the eternally abundant and glorious inheritance <Eph 1:17-19>
- * Therefore in Christ, our past, present and future entire problems have all been solved
 - * In future, the more we know Christ, the more evidences will appear
 - * History proves that no matter which individual, region or era restore the gospel of Christ, God's blessings, freedom, peace, love and hope will all restore
